MRS. MERRIMAN DEAD.

Widow of Cyrus Munson Merriman Passed Away Today.

Mrs. Georgia C. Merriman, who had been ill for the past two months at the Park hotel, died this morning. She was the widow of Cyrus Munson Merriman, once a resident of Williamsport, and a sister-in-law of Hiram A. Merriman. She leaves a son, W. Egbert C. Merriman, of Virginia, and a daughter, Mrs. Henry C. Quigley, of Bellefonte. The funeral services will be held at her late home, Bedford, N. Y.

Pool Contest.

made thrice potent master, its highest officer.

—

Mrs. Ella Mulligan died at the hospital Saturday afternoon at 5.40 o'clock. She is survived by the following children: Mrs. Harry Berry, of Montoursville; Miss Mae, of Philadelphia; Bertha and William, at home. Mrs. Mulligan was the widow of Robert Mulligan, a former well-known printer.

—

The funeral of Mrs. Solomon Jerrell was held Saturday afternoon from the family residence, No. 732 Tucker street. Rev. John Knittle, pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer off